Gentlemen:-

Our Clients, The Soviet Philatelic Assn. of Moscow, U. S. S. R. have requested us to send them a list of firms and associations dealing with collections of stamps and old coins.

We would appreciate very much if you could send to the attention of the writer any material you have on this subject together with copies of any periodicals you publish and also of catalogs.

If there is any information you wish about The Soviet Philatelic Assn., we would be glad to communicate with them on your behalf or furnish you with their address for direct communication.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

Referring to your letter of September 14th, this Society has nothing to do with collections of stamps. We do not publish a catalogue and the rules of our organization do not permit furnishing the names of our members for the purposes you describe. I am enclosing, however, a list of coin dealers in the United States in the event that this may be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

SN:JG
